From the Desk of Father Reither

Happy fourth day of Christmas! Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Holy Family. This feast day serves as a reminder of how Jesus has sanctified the family and raised married life to the level of a Sacrament. That means that in a very real way our path to heaven and the surest means of growth in holiness is profoundly tied to family life as God has willed it from the beginning. The fact that Jesus chose to be born in a human family teaches us that the family is not optional. It cannot be redefined or changed to fit the changing cultural sensibilities. Its enduring relevance continues to this day. At the same time, we know that every human family is marked by some form of disfunction and brokenness (as I say about my family, we put the fun in disFUNction) as each of us suffers from the wound of original sin.

But as the feast of Christmas reminds us, Jesus enters into the midst of human brokenness and suffering to raise us back to himself and he gives the grace to overcome pathways of sin. See again St. Paul's words in our second reading today as an example of striving for holiness in family life.

“Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do.

And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful.”

– St. Paul in his letter to the Colossians

It is not easy and certainly the path to holiness is messy, but when we try with our hearts to follow Jesus and live by his commands, God enters in. As we begin this new year, take some time to consider how you would like to grow closer to God as a family or as a member of a family this upcoming year.

God bless,

Fr. Reither

Prayer for Families (from the USCCB)

, ` We bless your name, O Lord, for sending your own incarnate Son,
to become part of a family,
so that, as he lived its life,
he would experience its worries and its joys.

We ask you, Lord,
to protect and watch over this family,
so that in the strength of your grace
its members may enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of your peace,
and, as the Church alive in the home,

bear witness in this world to your glory.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

CALIX: A Catholic Substance Abuse Recovery Support Group:

Calix is an association of Catholics wanting to live free of addiction to alcohol or drugs, and it is also for affected family members. It is not a substitute for AA or Al-Anon, but provides a Catholic perspective to complement these 12-step programs. "Calix," Latin for "chalice," was founded in Minneapolis in 1947 by a group of five men, all recovering alcoholics, who saw their Catholic faith as a sure path to serenity without alcohol. If you are interested in learning about the Calix group that meets every other Tuesday by Zoom in the Diocese of La Crosse, email Christine at healthandharmonywi@gmail.com. To learn more about Calix, visit <https://www.calixsociety.org/>

Mary, Mother of the Church (2006 Weston S., La Crosse) is hosting a small discussion format and viewing the series The Search from Formed.org, a seven-part video-based spiritual experience. The Search proclaims the Gospel in words that modern ears are ready to hear and images that modern eyes can't help but see and remember. It is hosted by the well-known Catholic evangelist Chris Stefanick and also features scientists, artists, philosophers, and other people from all walks of life proclaiming how their searches for meaning led them to Jesus and the Gospel. The Search is not just meant to be watched – and it certainly not meant to watch alone. That is why we will be meeting on Mondays from 6-7:30 PM beginning January 5th to watch, discuss, and truly benefit and grow from experiencing The Search. No matter where someone is in their faith, all are welcome. There is no cost!
