Feast of the Baptism of the Lord

Today's feast is always a little strange when we think about it. Jesus did not need to be baptised for the forgiveness of sins (like the rest of us do) because He was in fact, sinless. However, in the mysterious plan of God, Jesus wanted to be numbered among sinners. By his baptism, the waters of baptism were blessed for all of us.

Holy Baptism is the basis of the whole Christian life, the gateway to life in the Spirit, and the door which gives access to the other sacraments. Through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ, are incorporated into the Church and made sharers in her mission: "Baptism is the sacrament of regeneration through water in the word." (CCC 1213)

This week we close out Christmas and begin the new liturgical season of Ordinary Time, the time we are encouraged to grow in the grace of our baptism. While many of us may not even remember the day of our Baptism, it still remains the most important day of our lives for on that day the gates of heaven were opened to us and we were reborn as true children of God. Through our Baptism we began to share in the life of Grace, which is God's own life dwelling within us. God's Grace is always a free gift; it is not based on our own personal worthiness, nor can it be "earned" by good behavior. We are still free to reject His Grace, we do this whenever we choose to sin, but it is always God's free gift that He offers us the Grace to turn back to Him in repentance.

"You did not choose Me, but I chose you" - John 15:16. This truth is especially seen in infant baptisms. "Let the Children come to me", was our Lord's command in the Gospel (Matthew 19:14). This is the basis for the Church's teaching that new parents should and are obliged to bring their children as soon as possible to the waters of Baptism, indeed within the first weeks after being born, for the gift of being an adopted child of God and sharing in the life of Grace should never be delayed. , "We love because he first loved us." - 1 John 4:19. Yes, our response to God's love is necessary, but it always comes second. We do not choose to love God and then he shares his love with us, but already God's grace of repentance is being offered to us. Whether we choose to accept or reject it is up to us.

As we begin again this new season in the liturgical year, let us hold fast to the great gift we have been given in Baptism and continue to seek to live within His Grace by rejecting sin and by seeking to live the life of virtue.

God bless,

-Fr. Reither
