From the Desk of Father Reither

As we begin a new liturgical season in the Church, it is always good to take time to consider what the new season asks of us as Christians. The color of “ordinary time” is green which is the color of growth and things alive. This time above all is dedicated to the ordinary growth in discipleship that is a daily requirement of a follower of Jesus. This year we will be hearing from the Gospel of Matthew. A good plan for this year would be to read through the whole Gospel again, but especially to Matthew’s Sermon on the Mount, chapters 5-7. Those chapters outline Jesus’ own words in how the Christian is to live in the world. May we continue to heed his call of following after him during the “ordinary times” of our life!

I also want to thank everyone who participated in our school meeting this past Wednesday as we discussed the possibility of our school becoming officially accredited and the potential of joining the Wisconsin School Choice Program. As this decision has the potential to affect our school for many generations, I want to be sure that it has the strong support of the people who care most about the future of our parish and the mission of our school. We will not and cannot act without that support because the process of accreditation requires many hands to make lighter work. The main cost of becoming accredited is not so much financial as it is time consuming in preparing the required materials. The main benefit to our school would be the intentional strategic planning required to become accredited as well as the significant financial benefits/opportunities that are available for accredited schools.

If you were unable to attend the meeting and would like to know more about what this all entails, please feel free to contact me and I can help answer your questions. If you would be willing to help with any of the processes of becoming accredited please also let me know. Again, if there are not enough people willing to help to make this happen, we will not be able to move forward with it.

In all things please continue to pray for wisdom and guidance for our parish and school as we recall the words of psalm 127: “Unless the Lord build the house, in vain do the builders labor”. Come Holy Spirit!

-Fr. Reither
